Off to a running start!!!

This year has been an exciting one for the Dinizulu Law Group, Ltd.. Since announcing the opening of my new firm on Jan. 1, I have received a tremendous outpouring of support and congratulations from judges, past and current colleagues and partners, former staff members and clients. I sincerely thank everyone for your kind words and enduring friendship.

In the midst of a period of unprecedented growth in my professional career, I purchased a new headquarters for the Dinizulu Law Group, Ltd. -- a beautiful office condo in the LaSalle-Wacker Building at 221 N. LaSalle St. Located on the 11th floor of the 1930s- style Art Deco skyscraper. The building offers awesome and luminous views of the Chicago River and sits in a safe and convenient downtown location easily accessible via public transportation or by car.

I was drawn to the amenities the building provides as well as to its beauty, including a private conference room. In addition, I have increased my staff by four, including an attorney, two legal secretaries and a law clerk, enabling me to provide an even higher level of customer service.

Despite today's difficult economic times, Dinizulu Law Group has thrived, filing important cases on behalf of numerous clients ranging from wrongful death, toxic torts, medical malpractice and commercial litigation. As a result, Dinizulu Law Group is off to an impressive start thanks to you.

Off topic...

I would be remiss if I didn't speak to the current events of the day. As a proud Obama supporter, I am anxiously optimistic about his historic run.

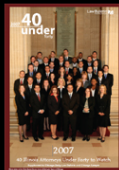

Although in the last couple of weeks we have seen Senator Obama rise in the polls, lets remember that "it ain't over until the fat lady sings." Anyone who tells you this election is already decided is dead wrong. Let's not forget the 2000 election, when Al

Gore was up by double digits in October. The surest way to lose a race is to slow down with the finish line in sight. (Usain Bolt notwithstanding)

Let's do our part. If you can't volunteer in a battleground state or phone bank, donate to the campaign. Join me in supporting Barack by making a donation to my personal fundraising page: Obama 08
